ABSTRACT

The third edition of the Medical College of Georgia (MCG) fact book provides a chronicle of the year 1978-1979, reflecting data and events important to the institution. Sections include: general information/Augusta; general information/MCG; administration; budget and physical plant; library/learning resources; faculty; continuing education; research; students; degree information; classified personnel; house staff; hospital and clinics; and alumni. Lists of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia, administrative personnel, and faculty are provided. Graphs and illustrations contain information such as organizational charts for business affairs, the School of Allied Health Sciences, the School of Dentistry, and the School of Medicine; a financial summary from the Medical College of Georgia; authorship of research publications; and degrees and certificates conferred by sex (1978-1979). This fact book was an award winner at the 1980 Annual Forum of the Association for Institutional Research. (LC)

Office of the President

June 30, 1979

Dear Colleague:

This is the third edition of the Medical College of Georgia Fact Book. It provides a chronicle of the year 1978-1979, reflecting data and events important to our institution. When filling out questionnaires or grant applications, recruiting new faculty members, writing speeches or just wondering "how many?" you may find this book useful.

It is my hope that students, faculty, staff and friends of MCG will use the Fact Book in a new year of growth and achievement, a year highlighted by an appreciation of the Medical College of Georgia.

Sincerely,

Wm. H. Moretz

William H. Moretz, M.D.
President

MEDICAL COLLEGE OF GEORGIA FACT BOOK 1978 - 1979

This third edition of the Medical College of Georgia Fact Book is a compilation of data detailing the faculty, staff, students, administration, and facilities of MCG during the year 1978-1979. It should serve as a useful reference for those interested in the history, growth and scope of the Medical College.

Our hope is to expand and refine the Fact Book each year, making it a more inclusive and valuable volume. We welcome any suggestions for changes or new data that would result in the improvement of the book. Any comments or corrections should be directed to Barbara Stephens in the Division of Educational Research and Development.

For their assistance in the publication of the Fact Book, we wish to thank Ms. Ann Clark, Ms. Debbie Radford, Ms. Beth Jones and Mr. Garon Hart; as well as all those who contributed data or ideas. Special thanks go to Mr. Jim Sikes for computer services and Ms. Dorothy Mims for the historical data.

We also wish to thank the following who served as reviewers for the publication: Dr. Bernie Abbott, Ms. Laurie Attaway, Dr. Joe Bailey, Mr. James Blissit, Dr. Ted Coleman, Dr. Jean Morse, Ms. Anne Salter, Dr. Biagio Vericella, and Dr. Jackie Weatherred.

LOOKING FOR US?

AUGUSTA, GEORGIA

We're not hard to find. Just trace the scenic course of the Savannah River northwest from where it joins the Atlantic Ocean at Savannah, or trace Interstate 20 east from Atlanta. You'll find Metro Augusta midway between those two metropolitan centers, dominating its own area of the state of Georgia, and extending its influence well into the neighboring state of South Carolina.

Others have found us...people and industries..and they've found us a prime location for a healthy, happy, and rewarding life.

MEDICAL MARVELS

The medical complex of Metro Augusta is, indeed, complex. It ranks as the largest single enterprise in the area, employing more than 10,000 persons. The operating budget for MCG alone exceeds $91 million annually. But the humane and compassionate care offered the ailing transcends dollar considerations. Within the roster of proprietary and governmental insitutions, teaching hospitals and community hospitals, health services ranging from the routine and conventional to the rarest and most exotic are available.

This would hardly elicit surprise if one were speaking of a major metropolitan center - Atlanta, New York, Boston, or Los Angeles. But it surely marks Augusta as a rarity among communities of its size.

The Medical College of Georgia (MCG) is the health science university for the state. Its general teaching hospital is Talmadge Memorial, a 504-bed (excluding newborns) institution.

University Hospital, a 700-bed general, acute care community hospital located near MCG, served at one time as the teaching hospital for the college. Today, it serves as a clinical training institution for MCG, and has a formal affiliation with the college for that purpose, but it is not part of the college.

In addition to Talmadge and University Hospitals is St. Joseph's Hospital, a 250-bed insitution of the Catholic church that is operated as a non-profit community hospital. Also, Doctors Hospital, a 200-bed proprietary facility, is located just northwest of the city.

Georgia Regional Mental Hospital is a state institution with its own staff of psychiatric specialists, which serves as a clinical training hospital for MCG. Gracewood State Hospital is a specialist in custodial care for the mentally retarded and also serves as a clinical training site for MCG students.

Lenwood Hospital is operated by the Veterans Administration. An ultra-modern 420-bed structure is rising in the city to replace a second, older VA hospital, Forest Hills. Dwight David Eisenhower Army Medical Center at Fort Gordon is a Class II military hospital, the classification given Walter Reed Hospital in Washington. It serves the military personnel at the fort and their dependents, and the large corps of retired military personnel of the area. It also serves as a military referral center for difficult and unusual cases. Its staff consists of military doctors, nurses, and technicians, including some who have a clinical faculty appointment at MCG.

Along with its nine hospitals, Augusta has 200 doctors and 65 dentists in private practice providing a wide range of patient care services. Thus, Augusta is one of the leading medical and para-medical centers in the Southeast.

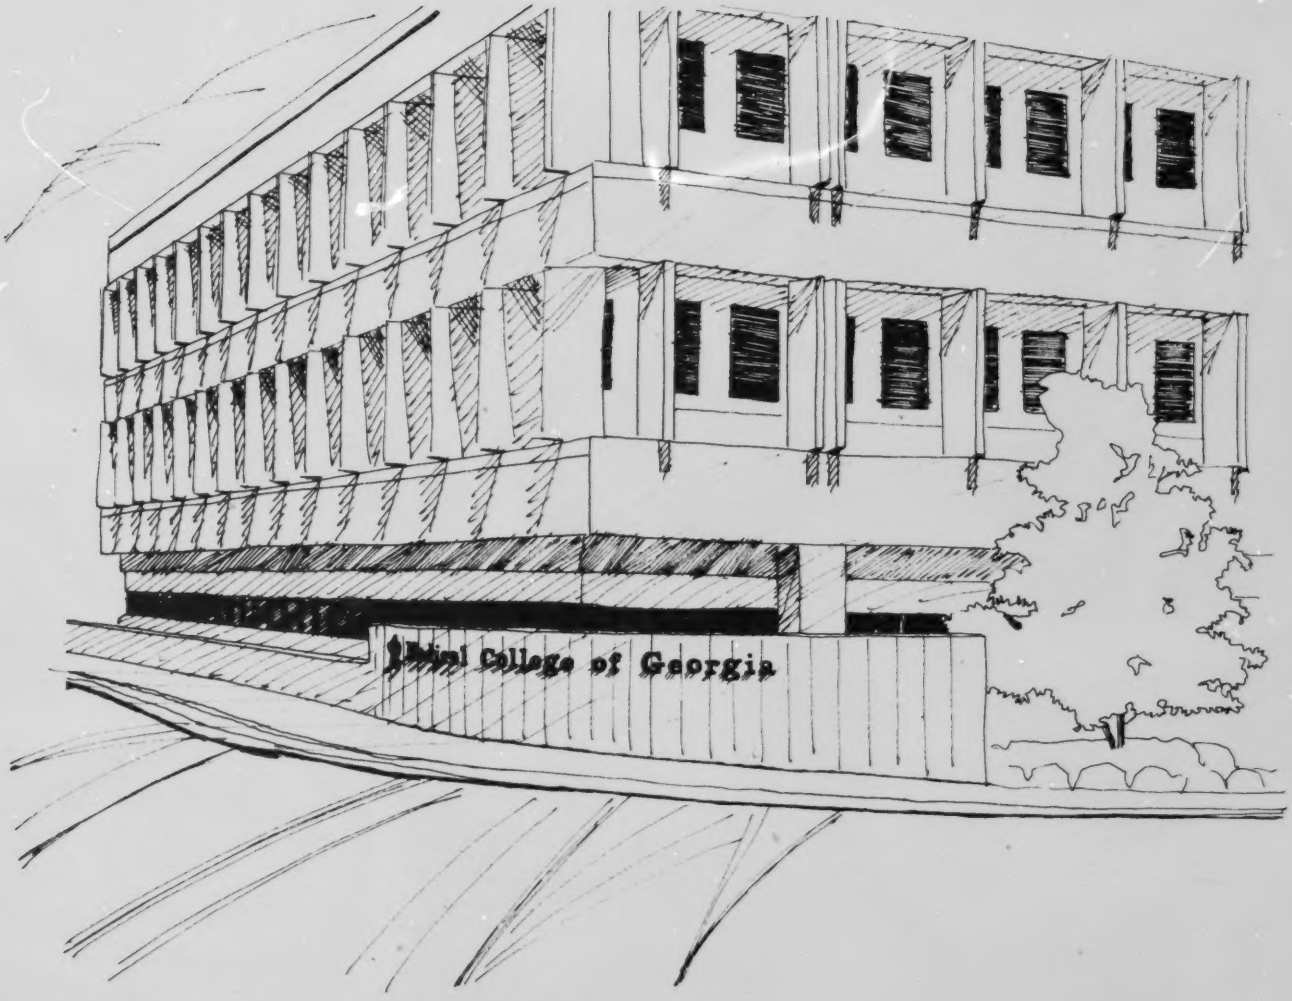
General Information/MCG 2



PROFILE OF THE MEDICAL COLLEGE OF GEORGIA

TYPE: The Medical College of Georgia is a state-supported institution - unique in the fact that it is the only publically supported health science university in Georgia. It is a unit of the University System of Georgia.

PURPOSE: To provide health education and training for prospective practitioners, scientists, and educators at the undergraduate, graduate, postgraduate and continuing education levels.

To promote scholarly inquiry in the biological sciences and provide leadership in the generation of basic knowledge of human biology and behavior in health and disease.

To exercise leadership in the development of new educational approaches for the health professions and in the application of new knowledge and technology.

LOCATION: The campus, situated in the approximate center of Augusta, is convenient to downtown and is accessible to surburban businesses and shops.

SIZE: The present five school campus consists of seventy-two buildings, including a 504-bed teaching hospital, on approximately 78 acres of land. Since 1954 the college has grown from a single school of three buildings located on a two acre campus.

SCHOOLS: MEDICINE: Established by legislative act in 1828. First degree awarded in 1833.

NURSING: Moved to MCG campus in Augusta in 1956 from the University of Georgia, Athens.

GRADUATE STUDIES: Established as a separate school by the Board of Regents in 1965. Programs formerly offered under Graduate Division. First Master's degree awarded in 1951; first Ph.D. in 1956.

DENTISTRY: Established by Board of Regents in 1965. First students accepted in 1969. First degrees awarded in 1973.

ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCES: Established as a separate school by Board of Regents in January 1968 incorporating baccalaureate programs already established at MCG.

REGALIA:

The Medical College of Georgia regalia, rich in symbolism, was originally developed and designed by the late Dr. Walter Shepeard, Professor Emeritus of the School of Medicine. It is based on the coats of arms of three members of the early faculty: Dr. L.A. Dugas and Drs. Joseph and Paul Fitzsimmons Eve.

The cap represents the family coat of arms of L.A. Dugas, a member of the 1832 faculty. The right side is silver, the left is blue. The cap's six corners stand for heroism awards given to the family by France during the First Crusade. The red saltire cross is superimposed on the Dugas coat of arms and extends into all quadrants.

The main part of the hood carries the Dugas colors and the red saltire cross with two attached tags in the front; the right tag represents the family coat of arms of Drs. Joseph and Paul Fitzsimmons Eve, prominent 1832 faculty members, and the left tag carries the Dugas family colors. The color of the hood's trim symbolizes the major discipline of the wearer: herbal green for medicine; yellow for science; lilac for dentistry; apricot for nursing; and blue for philosophy. The width of the trim, set by the Intercollegiate Regalia Commission, indicates the level of the degree: two inches for the bachelor's, three for the master's, five for the doctor's hood.

SYMBOL AND LOGO

The MCG symbol represents infinity -- over and under, a never-ending path continually repeating itself -- symbolizing man's search for immortality, man's attempt to prolong life through health and medicine.

The five poles which make up the entity represent the five areas of study which make up the whole -- the Medical College of Georgia. These poles form a precise, mechanical shape which imparts a scientific "feeling." The abstract quality of the symbol can be likened to a biological unit or an atom, organic because of its round, flowing form; mathematical in its strict geometric pattern.

When the symbol is used in conjunction with the stable, authoritative letterforms of the MCG logo (Craw Clarendon typeface) it becomes a powerful statement of quality and professionalism for the college it represents.

MCG

SEAL

Used on official documents, the seal of MCG was adopted by the college in 1975. It is similar to the one used in the earliest days of the institution. The seal bears the words Medical College of Georgia in Latin and the Roman numerals for 1828, the year the college was chartered. The illustration depicts the Old Medical College Building on Telfair Street.

CHRONOLOGICAL HIGHLIGHTS IN THE HISTORY OF THE MEDICAL COLLEGE OF GEORGIA

1828: Medical Academy of Georgia chartered by state of Georgia with plans to offer single course of lectures leading to bachelor's degree.

1829: Name changed to Medical Institute of Georgia empowered to confer Doctor of Medicine degree.

1833: First M.D. degree conferred on four graduates. School conducted by six faculty in rooms in City Hospital. Name changed to Medical College of Georgia.

1834: MCG faculty began a campaign urging medical schools throughout the nation to cooperate in uniform entrance requirements and longer sessions.

1846-1847: Conventions of representatives of medical schools were held to discuss higher standards of medical education. These meetings resulted in the formation of the American Medical Society, which became the American Medical Association.

1861-1865: School closed during War Between the States.

1865: School reopened with 47 students. Outpatient clinic became a part of teaching program.

1873: Agreement made for affiliation with the University of Georgia, though separate governance and financing were maintained. Name changed to Medical Department of the University of Georgia.

1893: Requirements changed to three annual sessions of six months each.

1900: Fourth year made requirement for degree. First two years devoted to basic sciences, with clinical sciences emphasized in last two years.

1907: Medical Department received Class A (the highest) designation from the AMA Council for Medical Education.

1909: Flexner Report on Medical Education in the United States released, with adverse report on MCG. Inadequate financial support and tenuous affiliation with the University of Georgia led Flexner to recommend that the school be closed or moved to Athens.

1911: True affiliation with University of Georgia effected. University took control of property under single board of trustees and academic program came under University direction.

1928: Centennial Celebration.

1932: A Board of Regents established for the University System.

SOURCE: Revised from the 1977-78 Institutional Self-Study Report.

1933: Financial crisis of the Depression led to a Board of Regents decision to close the medical school. Protests of graduates, citizens of Augusta and throughout the state, together with support from Governor Eugene Talmadge, reversed the decision. Name changed to School of Medicine of the University of Georgia

1934: AMA removed school from Class A list and recommended it be dropped from membership. Under leadership of a new dean, Dr. G. Lombard Kelly, a massive program was undertaken to correct deficiencies.

1936: Class A rating provisionally restored by AMA (Fully restored the next year). Entrance requirements raised to three years of college pre-medical training.

1942: In response to manpower demands of World War II, an accelerated program was started with 4 continuous sessions of thirty-three weeks each. Classes were graduated every 9 months. This ceased in 1949.

1945: Legislative act authorized construction of a hospital to be operated in conjunction with the medical school.

1950: Medical school became an independent institution in the University System and reverted to its earlier name, Medical College of Georgia.

1951: First degrees of Master of Science and Master of Science in Medical Art were awarded.

1956: Eugene Talmadge Memorial Hospital opened as the teaching facility for MCG. School of Nursing program moved from the University of Georgia at Athens to MCG.

1957: First full-time clinical faculty appointed.

1959: First nursing degrees awarded at MCG.

1963: First offering of Ph.D. in biomedical science fields.

1964: School of Medicine became the fourth U.S. School to begin participation in the self-evaluation study conducted by the American Medical Association.

1965: Dental School approved by Regents.

1966: First Ph.D. awarded.

1968: School of Allied Health Sciences approved with departments of Medical Illustration, Medical Technology, Medical Record Science, Radiologic Technology and Dental Hygiene.

1969: First dental students accepted.

1973: Medical College of Georgia first accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. First dental degrees (D.M.D.) awarded.

1978: Celebration of Sesquicentennial - 150 years of history.

1953 - 1958	Edgar Rudolph Pund
1958 - 1972	Harry Barron O'Rear
1972 - Present	William Henry Moretz

Between the years 1833 - 1950, the administrator of MCG was a dean. In 1950 the Medical School became an independent institution in the University System; thus, George L. Kelly was appointed to be the first president of the Medical College of Georgia.

FAMOUS FIRSTS

The second Dean of MCG, Dr. Paul F. Eve, is credited by many as being the first to use chloroform for anesthesia. He also made medical history in 1850 by performing the first hysterectomy.

The name of another of MCG's early deans lives on in the nomenclature of medicine as Dugas' Sign. Described in the Transactions of the American Medical Association for 1857, his test for the dislocation of the shoulder is still useful today.

MCG LIBRARY

The MCG library, located on Laney Walker Boulevard next to the Administration Building, will have expanded from a physical facility of less than 30,000 square feet to one of over 70,000 square feet by early 1980.

This combination old and new building will provide considerably more seating in a variety of user configurations--conference, seminar and small group rooms, individual and lockable carrels, computer-assisted instruction and audiovisual stations, library tables, and casual seating.

The collection includes over 100,000 journals, books and audiovisuals; and microforms, government documents, pamphlets, rare books and museum items are also housed in the MCG library.

Borrowing privileges are for faculty, staff and students of the Medical College of Georgia. An embossed library borrower's card attached to an MCG identification card is required to check out materials. Others may borrow on interlibrary loan through their own library or by special application to the director of circulation services.

Materials not available in the MCG library collection may be borrowed from other libraries through interlibrary loan. These services are provided to MCG faculty, staff, and students and are usually completed within one or two weeks.

The library provides three self-service photocopy machines. Materials available in the library may be duplicated, at the cost of 5¢ per exposure, subject to copyright laws.

Reference services available include assistance with reference books, indexes and abstracts, bibliographies, the journal list, the card catalog, citation verification and computerized bibliographic searches. These computerized bibliographic searches of data bases include: MEDLINE, TOXLINE, BIOSIS, ERIC, CHEMCON, CANCERLIT, and PSYCHOLOGICAL ABSTRACTS.

Library orientations are available upon request. These orientations may be simple overviews of the library program or intensive workshops to help the user develop research techniques or information-gathering habits.

The library involvement with audiovisuals allows for the provision of reference services. A collection of catalogs from health science media producers and distributors is available. Audiovisual materials, including slides, films, audiotapes, and videotapes, may be used in the library or checked out. In addition, AV Services coordinates film rental and film rental information for all MCG departments.

MCG SYSTEM AND COMPUTER RESOURCES

The Division of Systems and Computer Services offers a variety of services to all faculty and staff, whether they are involved in research, education, clinical, administrative, or other activities. Division faculty offer courses under the auspices of the program in Health Systems and Information Sciences and often serve on graduate student thesis or project advisory committees. Specific services, facilities, and resources provided for campus users are listed below:

MCG FACULTY

DEFINITIONS:

Instructional Faculty - Faculty with an academic appointment whose primary responsibility is not administrative. This includes all faculty at the level of department chairman and below. (Total full-time Instructional Faculty, June 30, 1979 = 573)

Administrative Faculty - Faculty whose primary responsibility is administrative. This generally includes all faculty above the level of department chairman. Faculty with administrative titles but no academic appointments are also included. (Total Administrative Faculty, June 30, 1979: with Academic Appointment = 44; without Academic Appointment = 35.)

Full-Time Faculty - Faculty on an academic or fiscal year contract whose work commitment is 100%. (Includes MCG/VA faculty whose combined work commitment equals 100%.)

Part-Time Faculty - Faculty on an academic or fiscal year contract whose work commitment is less than 100%.

General Programs Faculty - Faculty whose academic appointment is not in one of the four schools. Because the institutional definition for reporting faculty is based on school of primary responsibility rather than school of academic appointment, approximately one-half of the General Programs faculty are reported either as being administrative faculty or as being in one of the four schools. Therefore, except in the diagram below, General Programs Faculty are not listed separately.

FACULTY BENEFITS
1979

VACATION: One month each fiscal year if taken in a consecutive period; 20 days (excluding Saturdays and Sundays) if taken in segments. No payment for accrued vacation upon termination of employment.

HOLIDAYS:
New Year's Day
Independence Day
Labor Day
Thanksgiving
Friday after Thanksgiving
Christmas Eve
Christmas Day

SICK LEAVE: Full-time faculty incapacitated by illness shall have their salary continued as a matter of course for the duration of the illness in accordance with the following provisions:

If the individual has been employed:

Less than one year, two weeks' salary;

At least one year but less than four years, one month's salary;

At least four years but less than eight years, three months' salary;

At least eight years but less than 12 years, three months' full salary and an additional three months at one-half salary unless eligible for disability retirement (after ten years):

Twelve years of more, three months' full salary and an additional six months at one-half salary unless eligible for disability retirement.

Part-time faculty with a work commitment of half-time or more are authorized sick leave as outlined above in an amount equivalent to the ratio of the percentage of time employed (work commitment). Only the number of years of continuous employment at a work commitment of half-time or more may be applied.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE: The President may, with the approval of the Chancellor and the Board of Regents, grant leaves of absence, with or without pay, to members of the faculty. Leaves are granted only for the purpose of promoting scholarly work and encouraging professional development. The Medical College does not have a sabbatical leave policy at this time.

RETIREMENT PLAN:	Participation is required for all who have a work commitment of half-time or more. Members contribute 6% of monthly gross salary and the State contributes an additional amount (ranging from 6.83% in 1945 to 10.51% currently). The minimum requirement for service retirement is ten years of creditable service and age 60. Minimum requirement for disability retirement and survivors benefit is also ten years of creditable service. Members under age 60 who leave our employment with ten or more years of creditable service may freeze their membership and credits until they reach age 60. Members who leave our employment with less than ten years of creditable service may withdraw member contributions and earned interest upon application.
DEATH BENEFITS:	After one year of service, a sum equivalent to one month's gross salary is paid to the surviving spouse; after two years, two months' salary; after three or more years, three months' salary.
GROUP HOSPITALIZATION INSURANCE:	Choice of two Blue Cross/Blue Shield hospitalization plans.
GROUP LIFE INSURANCE:	Amount available based on salary.
JURY DUTY:	Full pay while on jury duty.
SOCIAL SECURITY:	Current contribution rates--6.13% of monthly gross salary by employee and 6.13% by MCG (of the first $22,900 earned).
COMPULSORY RETIREMENT AGE:	Personnel of the University System of Georgia may not continue employment beyond June 30 following their 70th birthday.

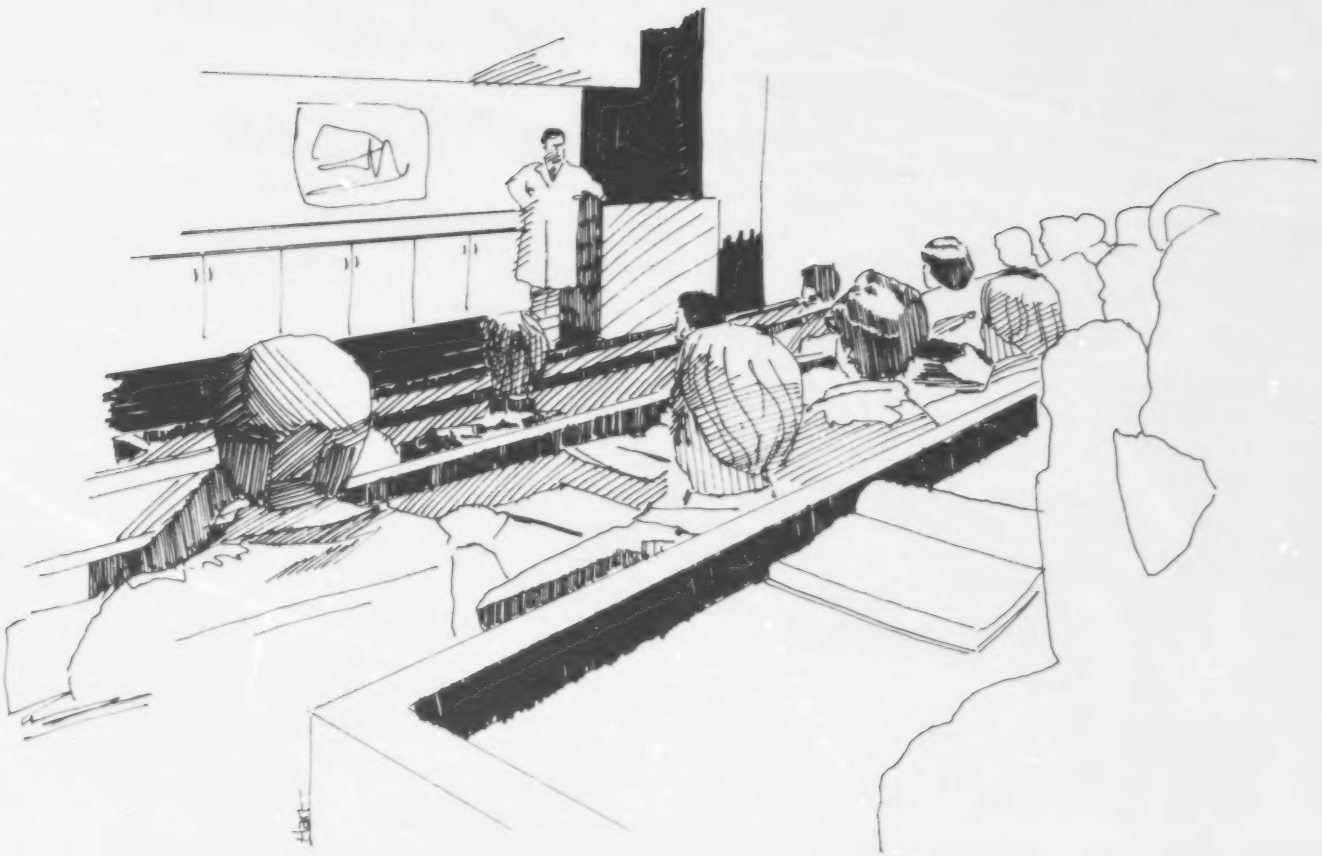
Continuing Education 7



SUMMARY OF CONTINUING EDUCATION
1978 - 1979

In the 1978-79 academic year, the Medical College of Georgia presented 332 Continuing Education courses. The total enrollment in these courses numbered 9,504 people from 48 different states and the District of Columbia. In addition, 41 enrollees came from other countries. Approximately 70% of the total attending were from Georgia, representing 135 of its 159 counties.

The table below shows the comparison between enrollment and institutional Continuing Education Units (C.E.U.'s). Each C.E.U. is equal to ten contact hours of approved continuing education. An increase of 21% in enrollment and C.E.U.'s was noted between 1977-1978 and 1978-1979.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

The Medical College of Georgia has a variety of student organizations and activities available for interested students. For information on activities other than those listed, students are encouraged to contact the Office of Campus Activities.

Student Government Association

Formed in the 1967-68 academic year, the Student Government Association is authorized to administer student activity fees within the general guidelines for the use of state funds. The Association is made up of elected representatives from each of the schools and departments of the college.

The Student Government Association sponsors athletic programs, social and cultural entertainment and the Cadaver and Aesculapian; and it is concerned with matters relating to student health, student housing and parking areas. Hence, the Association is responsible for many of the benefits and privileges each MCG student enjoys.

The Student Government Association also serves as a primary link between students, administration and faculty. Numerous changes have been brought about through discussion with the receptive faculty and administration of MCG.

Meetings are held monthly in the Student Center and are open to any student who wishes to attend. Information of meeting times is posted around campus and/or may be obtained by calling the Student Government Office on the 2nd floor of the Student Center, extension 3357.

Allied Health Student Assembly

The Assembly was organized in the spring of 1977 and is open to all students in the School of Allied Health Sciences. Its goals are to promote recognition of the School as a major faction of MCG; to promote the concept of the team approach to health care through continuing education; to promote and express the views of the students and provide a mode of representation within the administration of Allied Health and MCG; and to provide a means for social relationships among the students within Allied Health as well as other schools of MCG.

American Student Dental Association

The MCG chapter of the American Student Dental Association was organized in May, 1970. Objectives of this organization are to further the dissemination of dental knowledge among the members and to inculcate an appreciation of the benefits and responsibilities of dental organization.

Student American Medical Association

The local chapter of the Student American Medical Association was founded in 1950 with the following objectives: to represent and promote the collective interests of this society to advance the profession of medicine; to contribute to the welfare and education of medical students, interns and residents; to familiarize its members with the purposes and ideals of medicine; and to prepare its members to meet the social, moral and ethical obligations of the medical profession.

Medical Fraternities

Alpha Kappa Kappa	Phi Delta Epsilon	Theta Kappa Psi
1215 Johns Road	no resident address	3212 Wrightsboro Road

Student Nurses Association

All students in the School of Nursing are eligible for membership in the State and National Student Nurses Association.

Graduate Student Association

The Graduate Council was formed by the students of the School of Graduate Studies to promote recognition of the graduate school; to formulate and submit recommendations reflecting the will and best interests of the graduate student body to the faculty and administration of the college; and to promote closer relations among graduate students, faculty, administrators and all other students at MCG. Membership is open to students enrolled in the School of Graduate Studies.

Other Student Organizations

Other student organizations include the Black Student Medical Alliance, Campus Crusade for Christ, Christian Medical Society, Duplicate Bridge Club, various clubs related to specific allied health fields (Junior American Dental Hygienists' Association, Student Occupational Therapy Organization, etc.) and special interest clubs.

Publications

MCG students publish the Aesculapian (the yearbook) and the Cadaver (a newspaper printed several times annually). These publications are made available to all students, and any MCG student interested in becoming a member of a publication staff should contact the appropriate editor. Offices for both the Cadaver and the Aesculapian are located on the second floor of the Student Center.

Student Affairs Committee

The MCG Faculty Senate has established, as one of four standing faculty committees, a committee on Student Affairs. In part, this committee is responsible for:

1. Working via the director of student affairs and the Student Government Association chairman to coordinate committee activities with the activities of the Association and other student groups.

2. Reviewing and making recommendations concerning regulations regarding student life and activities, insofar as they are properly subject to the jurisdiction of the college.

3. Reviewing and making recommendations concerning general college policies relating to student disciplinary action, including standards and hearing procedures, and to consider student disciplinary questions concerning more than one school.

Students are encouraged to contact committee members with ideas and suggestions related to committee areas of responsibility.

Alumni 14

MCG ALUMNI ASSOCIATIONS

Five alumni associations serve the graduates of the Medical College of Georgia. They include Allied Health Sciences, Dentistry, Graduate Studies, Medicine and Nursing. Current presidents are listed below:

ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCES	(Temporarily without leadership)
DENTISTRY	Dr. Rudy Harrington
GRADUATE STUDIES	Dr. Dave A. Welter
MEDICINE	Dr. H. Calvin Jackson, Sr.
NURSING	Marty W. Sacksteder, MSN

The five alumni groups each have two basic purposes. First, they work to focus alumni attention on how alumni can serve to improve the school. Second, they work to focus MCG's attention on how alumni can be better served by the school.

The magazine, MCG Today, is the basic medium for informing alumni of developments at the university, and of news of other alumni. It is published four times each year.

All five alumni associations have access to the Alumni House, formerly the Hospital Director's home, located next to the old University Hospital. Alumni records are maintained there, alumni leadership meetings are held, and limited social events are held occasionally.

Alumni leaders also have access to the resources of Institutional Relations, and particularly the Alumni Operations Section. They can send informative mailings to the alumni, organize special continuing education activities, arrange for reunions and other social activities, raise money to pay for operating expenses and provide special grants to their schools, improve alumni records, provide student aid, present special awards, and so forth.

The fiscal agent for all five organizations is the MCG Foundation. After dues and other contributions are received and forwarded by the MCG Gifts Receiving Office, the MCG Foundation provides accounting services. The treasurers in these alumni associations are therefore able to concentrate on budgeting available funds.

THE MEDICAL COLLEGE OF GEORGIA FOUNDATION

The MCG Foundation, Inc., is a financial tool available to every sector within the Medical College of Georgia. The Foundation exists to meet financial needs which cannot be met through annual state funding.

Funds received by the MCG Foundation, Inc. are first recorded and acknowledged by the MCG Gifts Receiving Office located in the MCG Alumni House. They are then forwarded to the Foundation to be placed into expendable or endowment accounts. The MCG Foundation, Inc., employs one full-time accountant and one half-time clerical secretary. All other officers serve in a voluntary capacity. The Board of Directors includes alumni, business leaders, the MCG President, the Vice-President and Treasurer, the Provost, all five deans, and the presidents of all alumni associations. The Executive Director, at present, is the Director of MCG Institutional Relations.

MCG SPECIAL GIVING CLUBS

MCG has a special program to honor individuals and institutions who generously provide financial support to the college. This program consists of five organizations of two types:

	MEMBERSHIP 1977-78	1978-79
1. Annual Giving Clubs
Century Club ($100 to $249 per year)	279	303
Aesculapius Club ($250 or more per year)	172	222
Associates of Aesculapius Club ($50 to $99 per year for new graduates)	5	14
2. Leadership Giving Clubs
Founders Club ($10,000 or more within 10 years)	22	27
Presidents Club ($50,000 or more within 10 years, may include corporations or foundations)	14	15

For qualification purposes, contributions counting toward membership must benefit MCG and must be received initially by the Gifts Receiving Office in the Alumni House. Funds are then passed on to the proper tax-exempt entity: for example, the MCG Foundation.
